MHESAC Welcomes New Board Member

The Montana Higher Education Student Assistance Corporation (MHESAC) is pleased to announce the recent appointment of Helena resident Mike Green to its board of directors.

Green is a partner in the law firm, Crowley Fleck PLLP, and practices in the areas of business litigation, employment matters, government relations/lobbying and administrative issues with an emphasis on state and local taxation. In addition, he serves as a consultant to a variety of statewide groups in his areas of expertise.

Green takes an active role in the community by serving as a member of the board of directors of the United Way of Lewis and Clark County and as a Frontier Conference and Montana Officials Association football official. In addition, Green previously served as a student member of the Montana Board of Regents, and was a MHESAC board member from July 1995 through June 1997.

He is a 1996 Montana State University graduate. He received his law degree from The University of Montana School of Law in 1999.

Green is married with four children.

*Montana Higher Education Student Assistance Corporation (MHESAC) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation organized under Section 150(d) of the U.S. Tax Code. MHESAC is dedicated to ensuring access to student loans and lowering the cost of financing postsecondary education by providing capital in the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP) student loan secondary market, loan origination activities and borrower rebate programs.
