SAF Welcomes New Campus Outreach Manager to Great Falls Office

(GREAT FALLS) Nonprofit Student Assistance Foundation (SAF) is pleased to announce that Breanna Dorseth is the new campus outreach manager at its office at Montana State University Great Falls College of Technology.

SAF has outreach offices on campuses throughout Montana and staff members at those locations provide a wide range of services to students and families including Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) completion assistance, debt management counseling, scholarship and college search support and more.

The office in Student Central at the college is the newest of SAF's seven campus outreach offices. The others are located at Flathead Valley Community College in Kalispell, The University of Montana in Missoula, Montana State University in Bozeman, MSU-Billings in Billings, Miles Community College in Miles City and Montana Tech of The University of Montana in Butte.

Dorseth has been employed by SAF for about three-and-a-half years in a variety of capacities. She said she jumped at the opportunity to work at the Great Falls campus outreach office because it will allow her to live SAF's mission of providing students with the knowledge and tools to pursue their postsecondary education.

"I'm thrilled to have the opportunity to work on campus, one-on-one with the students," she said recently. "Plus, I'm excited to get out into the communities I serve to educate families about how to make higher education affordable, and about the wide range of services available through SAF."

Dorseth graduated from Carroll College in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in business administration with concentrations in economic, finance and management. Her hometown is Twin Bridges, Mont.
