Picture Perfect Jobs

Objective:

To have students consider careers in which they are interested and determine the ones for which they are best suited. Students should use their creativity to make a collage representing their findings.

Materials needed:

Magazines (that can be cut up), glue sticks and poster boards.

Procedure:

Instruct students to cut out pictures representing their interests, career or program of study, and use them to make a collage.

Discussion:

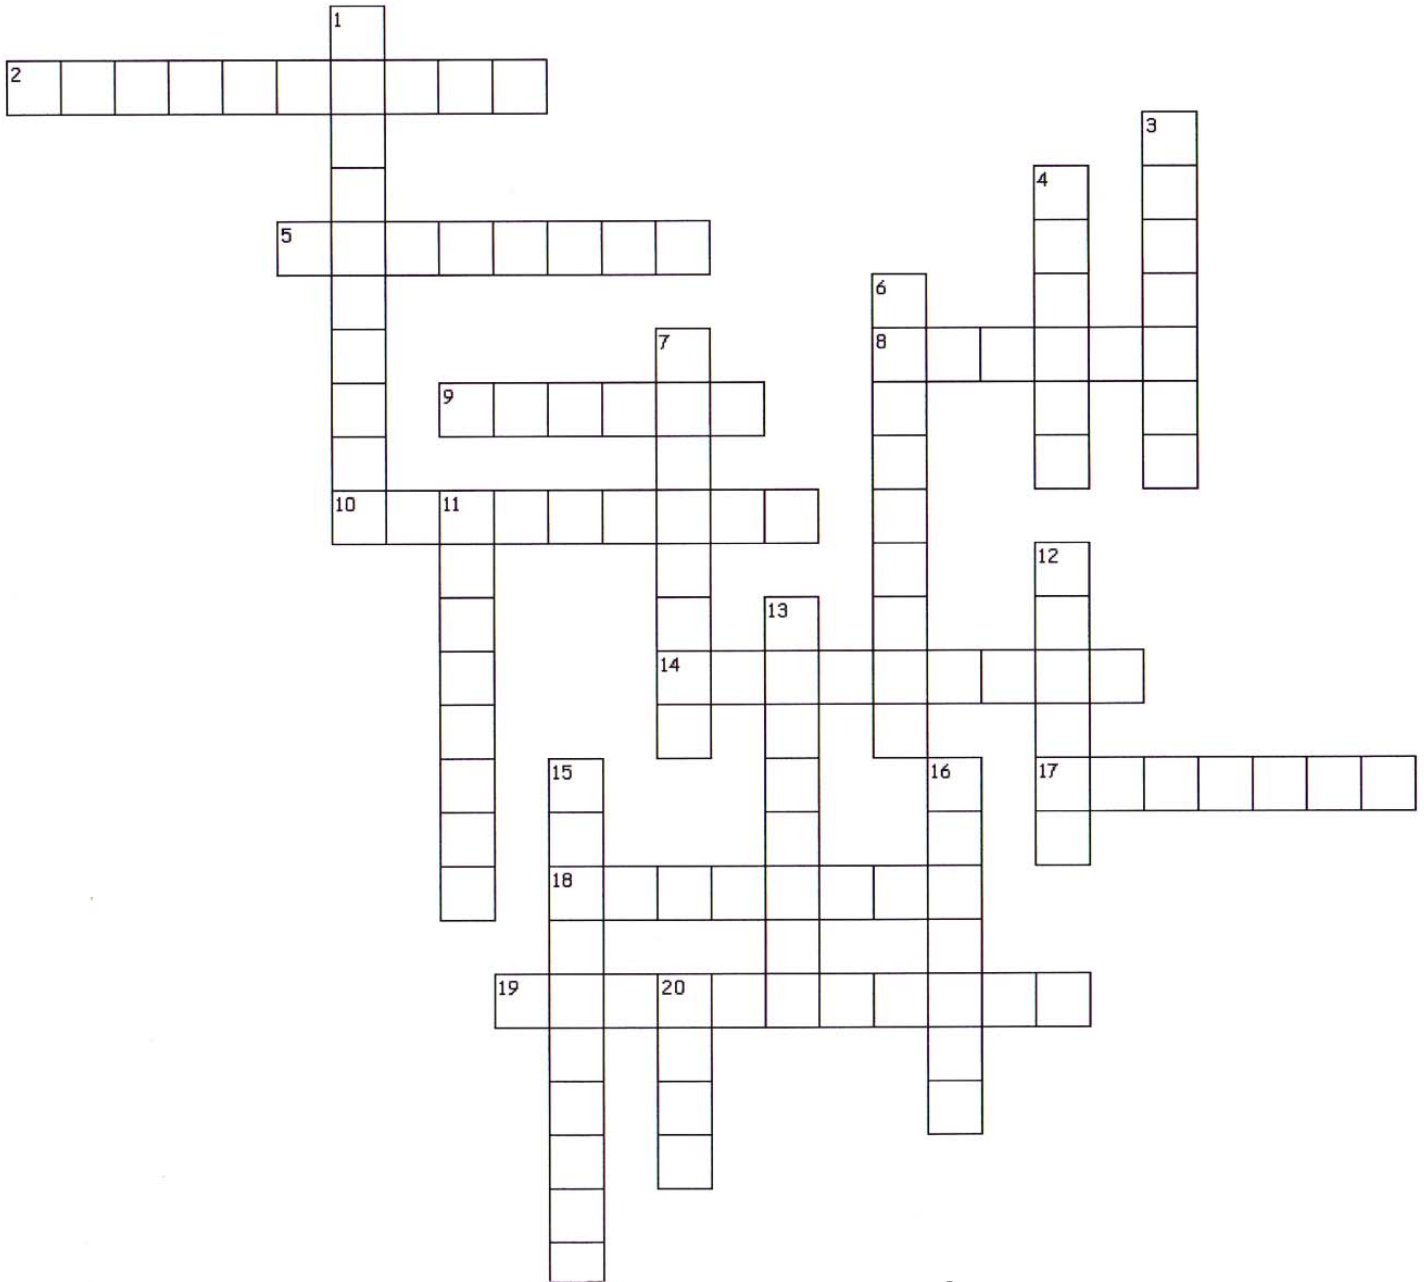

Have students break into groups and describe their collages to their classmates.

Time needed:

One or two class periods.
